5.3. Top Things to do in Cortina

The following is only a short list of the sights and attractions that Cortina has to offer:

- Mountain Hikes

With a total of 300 km of trails, this area offers an immense array of mountain walks and hikes at various levels of difficulty and durations. The most evocative of these include: The Montanelli trail from Pie Tofana, the tour of the Val Travenanzes and the Fanes waterfalls (for expert hillwalkers), excursions to Federa Lake, and trips to Lake Pianozes, Lake d'Ajal, Lake Ghedina and, last but not least, Lake Sorapis, which is famed for the turquoise colour of its waters. The Dolomiti d'Ampezzo National Park plays host to all manner of enchanting walks.

- High-Altitude thrills and chills

This part of Italy plays host to numerous mountain bike trails, fixed-aid climbing routes and rock faces that are perfect for tackling in the summer. Exploring the mountains and promoting mountaineering are the main objectives of the "Scoiattoli di Cortina" (Cortina Squirrels), a long-established group of amateur climbers who are renowned for having blazed the trail on numerous climbing routes and for the myriad expeditions. The mountain and natural-history guides who work around Cortina organize "Safe Adventures", which include excursions, hikes, ascents, rock-climbing courses and free-climbing trips.

Summer alternatives to climbing include canyoning and exploring the adventure park.

- History, art and culture in spades

Cortina is more than just a tourist hotspot – it is also a favourite destination of culture vultures, playing host as it does to high-quality art exhibitions and literary events, as well as meetings with leading names in the worlds of film, politics and journalism, not to mention highly enjoyable and enlightening musical and cultural events.
